

CAPABILITY • MESSAGING & MEETINGS

From first hello to sitting down together.

Once two people agree to connect, RTR gives the relationship room to grow — requests, messages, and meetings in one calm place.

Connection requests

A warm, low-pressure way to say “I would like to talk.” Nothing opens until the other person says yes.

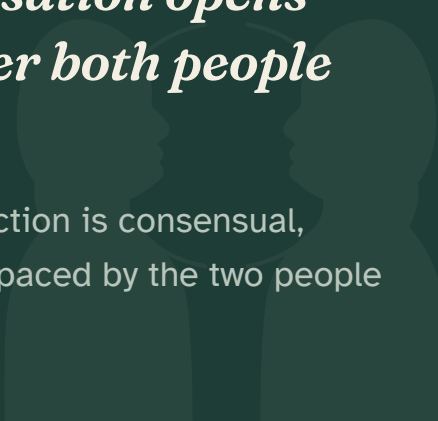

Direct messaging

A private, one-to-one conversation — a quiet space to introduce yourselves and find common ground.

Meeting scheduling

Move from messages to a real conversation: schedule a video call or plan to meet locally, without leaving the platform.

The background of the top section features a dark teal color with rounded corners. In the center, there are faint, light-colored silhouettes of two people facing each other in conversation. The quote is written in a white, italicized serif font.

*“Conversation opens
only after both people agree.”*

Every connection is consensual,
private, and paced by the two people
in it.

Reconciliation

THROUGH RELATIONSHIPS

The relationship is the work.
